Two degrees = twice as qualified!

TRANSLATOR – ENGINEER

French native speaker

AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION

- Editorial (reports, speeches, etc.)
 - Human Rights
 - Teaching
 - Multilingual matters
 - Cybercrime, etc.
- Technical (guidelines, standards, research reports, manuals, etc.)
 - Computer science
 - Telecommunications, satellites
 - Electronics
 - Environment, natural disasters
 - Digital TV
 - Weather issues and science, etc.

A RESPONSIBLE AND COMMITTED APPROACH

- I only translate into my mother tongue (French).
- I ALWAYS deliver ON TIME.
- I am a qualified translator. My objective is to deliver French texts that read as if written directly in French by the original author: my translations can be used immediately.
- I add value. Your texts will never be more thoroughly read than by a translator. This is why, attached to my translation, I will give you feedback on any typos or inconsistencies I may have found in your text.
- Your texts are treated as STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL.
- I revise all my translations twice before delivery.

REFERENCES

My competencies are validated by two degrees:

- A MASTER'S DEGREE IN TRANSLATION (summa cum laude) from ITI-RI, Strasbourg, France
- A MASTER'S DEGREE IN TELECOMMUNICATIONS from TELECOM-ParisTech (formerly known as TELECOM PARIS), Paris, France

My core clients are International Organizations:

- Global and European International Organizations (please contact me for more information)
- 3.7 million words translated (and counting!)

I use TRADOS 2007[®]

"I am curious by nature and have extensive experience as an engineer involved in international projects. I can adapt quickly to your field of expertise and work with your teams, if required, to deliver a high-quality translation that can be used immediately."
